Sir,

I have the honor to state that the Sanitary Inspector, Yedatore Range, reported that the latrines attached to the Travellers Bungalow and Musafirkhana at the New Yedatore Town are not being cleaned by the Muncipal Sweepers and further recommended the appointment of a sweeper to clean the latrine every day. The report was forwarded to the Amildar, Yedatore, for furnishing his opinion in the matter of employing the Muncipal sweeper at the place for the purpose, on a payment of a small allowance to him.

The Amildar replied that the service of the sweeper at the place may be utilised on payment of a monthly allowance of Rs2/= from the District Funds.

The matter having been placed before the Standing Committee at their Meeting held on 3-1-1930, a resolution was passed sanctioning the Amildar's proposal and this was
